CHINESE COMPETITION

Tola M has achieved an award of excellence; best participation in her solo/group performance in a Chinese Talent Competition in Melbourne on Friday the 6th of June. Tola sung a song in Chinese. Congratulations Tola for putting in the practice to achieve success!

AWARD WINNERS

At our assembly on June 13th, two of our students were recognised for their outstanding contributions.

In Grade 4, Noah S was awarded the Aussie of the Month, a program run by the Australia Day Council Network to celebrate students who embody the values of Fair Go, Mateship, Respect, and Inclusion. Noah received this award for his involvement in the Bendigo Chinese Association and his commitment to fostering respect and inclusion within the community and beyond. Congratulations, Noah!

In Grade 6, Wynter B received the Kiwanis Terrific Kid award, which honours students who demonstrate qualities such as thoughtfulness, enthusiasm, respect, responsibility, inclusivity, friendliness, curiosity, and care. Wynter was recognised for her considerate nature, willingness to help others, enthusiasm for school life, respect for diverse perspectives, and commitment to making everyone feel welcome. Her inquisitive mind and caring attitude shine through daily in the classroom and schoolyard. Congratulations, Wynter!

We are incredibly proud of both students for their dedication and positive impact within our school and community. Well done!
