SCHOOL DISCO AND HUMAN RIGHTS DAY

Our school disco is upcoming on Thursday 4th December. If you are able to assist on the day, please let the office know (helpers will need to show a Working With Children Check to the office).

On this day, students are able to wear casual clothes. We ask that casual clothes be SunSmart, with shoulders covered, and students wear closed in shoes.

We ask that students bring a gold coin donation on the day of the disco.

This year our Disco gold coin donation is being used to support the 'MADCOW (Make a Difference Change Our World) Organisation,' an organisation that supports the homeless, Karen refugees and the Youth Theatre Company in Bendigo. This fundraiser is in recognition of Human Rights Day. The National Human Rights Day is on Wednesday 10th December. On this day, students will be participating in grade level activities.

CITY OF GREATER BENDIGO MESSAGE

Please see the below message from the City of Greater Bendigo:

'As Christmas and the end of the year approach, we'd like to remind families of the City of Greater Bendigo's Staff Gift Policy, which does not allow staff to accept gifts or money. If you'd like to share some festive cheer, a card or a drawing from your child or family is always treasured and brings a big smile to our School Crossing Supervisors! Wishing you a safe and happy holiday period.'

LOST PROPERTY

A soft pink teddy, with a pretend band aid stitched onto its chest, was lost at the Bushland Picnic last week. If it has been found, can it please be returned to the office.
