Dear Parents and Carers,

INTERGENERATIONAL RELATIONSHIPS IN OUR LOCAL COMMUNITY

Aging adults play critical roles in the lives of young people. When they contribute to their wellbeing, it cultivates a sense of purpose and extends the benefits both ways. Such relationships are important in our community.

According to Erik Erikson, one of the first psychologists to describe social development across the lifespan, the final stage of emotional development is experienced around the age of 60 and older! Developing connections with a younger generation can help older adults feel a greater sense of fulfilment. In fact, linking older adults with young people can provide advantages for both groups. For example, such relationships can:

1. Provide an opportunity for both to learn new skills and aid cognitive stimulation
2. Give the child and the older adult a sense of purpose
3. Help alleviate fears children may have of the elderly
4. Invigorate and energise older adults
5. Help reduce the likelihood of depression and feeling of isolation in the elderly
6. Fill a void for children who do not have grandparents available to them
7. Help keep family stories and history alive.

Last week, the Grade 1/2 students from Room 1 visited the residents of the Royal Freemasons Aged Care Facility in Flora Hill. For many of the students it was quite a daunting task to engage with elderly people they did not know. It took an enormous amount of courage to move out of their comfort zone and interact with these strangers. Like their teacher, Miss Boyd, I am so incredibly proud of them for sharing their stories and engaging in conversation with the residents. I caught up with some of the students to find out how it all went. Jonty M was excited to tell me that he met a lady who was 101 years old – and that she had received not one, but two letters from the Queen! One was to acknowledge her 100th birthday, and the other was in recognition of 60 years of marriage. Very impressive milestones!

Lila P, Lucien P and Lottie N were a bit disappointed that the people they were talking to called them the wrong names. When I asked them why that might have been, they came to the conclusion that the older people may not have heard them properly given that a number of them had hearing aids. This was a great lead in to chatting about what they could do next time to better communicate and make themselves understood.

What a wonderful example from the students in this grade of reaching out to our wider community. It certainly ticks all of the boxes of our values of Kind, Curious and Brave.

BUSHLAND 2.0!

If you saw the amazing transformation of the Bushland after last weekend's Working Bee, you too would want to jump for joy!

An incredible amount of work was done by a dedicated group of over 40 parents, grandparents and teachers and about the same number of super enthusiastic children. Our community really came together to begin putting into reality the vision outlined by the Friends of Bushland group. A significant amount of pre-work was also done prior to the weekend to ensure that the work could proceed as smoothly as it did.

Some of the work completed included:

- Building a number of garden beds edged with timber and large rocks
- Filling the dry creek bed with stones
- Pressure washing the mural walls
- Painting a primer-coating on the cleaned walls
- Building wooden seats at the archway entry of the garden
- Creating a crushed rock pathway into the Bushland
- Fencing the pathway with rustic sleepers and wire
- Preparing the amphitheatre area for turf
- Shovelling dirt to ensure the water is encouraged to flow down the dry creek bed.

I have no doubt forgotten something as there was just so much happening! I apologise for any oversight. Building, barrowing, burrowing and barbequing – it all made such a difference. Thank you to everyone for your efforts.

NEW GRASS IN THE BUSHLAND- PLEASE KEEP OFF

As part of our Working Bee for the Bushland Project, we have had our new grass laid. There has been a mesh fence constructed around the grass but as it will take a few weeks to bed in, we please ask that you do not walk on the grass. It looks fantastic and we thank all the volunteers that have helped with the project.

PFA – EASTER RAFFLE DRAWN THIS FRIDAY

A reminder that our Easter Raffle will be drawn this Friday. Raffle tickets are still available for purchase. The first 10 prizes will be drawn at a 9:00am assembly, and the rest of the prizes will be drawn shortly after in the staffroom and handed to the winners in the classroom.

EARLY DISMISSAL ON THE LAST DAY OF TERM

Term 1 concludes on Friday April 5th. As mentioned above, the PFA Easter Raffle major prize winners will be drawn at a short assembly at 9:00am. The final assembly for Term 1 will begin at 2:00pm with the students being dismissed at the earlier time of 2:30pm.

TERM 2 BEGINS ON TUESDAY APRIL 23RD

Please note that Easter falls on the last weekend of the school holidays. The Easter Monday is a public holiday. School resumes on Tuesday April 23rd.

ANZAC DAY PUBLIC HOLIDAY APRIL 25TH

The ANZAC Day public holiday will be on Thursday April 25th. No students are required at school on this day.

Have a great week and a fabulous break.

THE EVONNE GOOLAGONG DAY

On Friday the 8th of March, Lily and I went to the Evonne Goolagong Indigenous tennis day at the Bendigo Tennis Centre. We went there because Lily and I are Indigenous.

Once we arrived, Evonne Goolagong shared with us about how she started playing tennis. When Evonne Goolagong was three she had a bat and a ball and hit it against the wall and would try to improve each day. When she was older she played in a squad team and travelled around Australia.

After that, we were set in our age groups, then we were practising different types of ways to hit the tennis ball. We played a game with our Indigenous students and were able to practise all the skills we had learnt.

Later that afternoon we all went to take a group photo and have a delicious lunch with Evonne Goolagong.

After Lunch, we played a tournament with a partner and my partner was Clifton. We won most of the tennis games. We then got back into our age groups and played more skill-based games.

At the end we all sat down and Evonne Goolagong handed out prizes for the best players. A boy named Adam won and he got a $300 tennis racquet and a girl named Sabrina won a tennis bag and tennis balls. We then spent more time with Evonne, taking pictures and getting her signature.

I think that was one of the greatest days because I got to play tennis with Evonne Goolagong. Before this, I had never heard of her but now that I know her she has inspired me to keep on trying and never give up. I'm so glad I met her!
